

O JOGO GLOBAL MUDOU

QUAL O PAPEL DAS RELAÇÕES EUROPA-ÁFRICA?

THE GLOBAL GAME HAS CHANGED

WHAT ROLE FOR EUROPE-AFRICA RELATIONS?

29 de Abril de 2014

Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian (Sala 2)

Lisboa

| | Oradores confirmados

April 29th, 2014

Gulbenkian Foundation (Room 2)

Lisbon

| | Confirmed Speakers

Keynote Speech / Discurso de Abertura

LUIS AMADO

Luís Amado, a Portuguese national from Madeira, is born on 1953. Since mid-1990s, Amado has held various posts in the Portuguese Government, including Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and Cooperation (1995-1997 and 1999-2002), Minister of Defense (2005-2006) and Minister of State and Foreign Affairs (2006-2011). The Lisbon Treaty and the Joint Africa-EU Strategy were signed during his mandate as Minister for Foreign Affairs, in the Portuguese presidency of the European Union (second semester of 2007). As part of his political activity, he has also served in Madeira's regional government and as a member of the Assembly of the Republic.

He has received a degree in Economics from the Technical University of Lisbon. He has been an international consultant and held posts as adviser to the Portuguese National Defense Institute, Lisbon, and as a Visiting Professor at Georgetown University. Amado is also a Visiting Professor at the Institute for Social and Political Sciences (ISCSP) and at Faculty of Economics of Universidade Nova de Lisboa. He is currently the Chairman of BANIF.

RENÉ KOUASSI

Dr. Kouassi, an Ivorian national, is the Director of Economic Affairs of the African Union Commission, in Addis Abeba . He became an economic analyst at the Organisation of African Unity in the 1990s and later headed the OAU's Research and Development division before becoming director of the AU's Economic Affairs Division. He held previously and successively the functions of Deputy Chief of Staff of the Secretary General of the Organization of African Unity (OAU), Dr Salim Ahmed Salim and Chief of Cabinet of the Interim Chairperson of the Commission of the African Union, Mr. Amara Essy.

Dr. Kouassi is a holder of a PhD in Economics in October 1995 at the University of Versailles, France, and a doctorate in Development Economics in February 1985 at the University of Auvergne (Clermont – Ferrand I, France).

FRANÇOISE MOREAU

Francoise Moreau is the Head of Unit for Africa-EU Partnership and African Peace Facility, in the European Commission (EC), Directorate General Development and Cooperation - EuropeAid (DG DEVCO), in Brussels. She has worked in several departments and in different functions at the EC, including member of the Development Policy Unit and Head of Unit on Development Coherence.

MARTA MARTINELLI

Marta Martinelli is a senior policy analyst for the Open Society Foundation since May 2010, working on gender, democratization, security governance, and development issues in Africa.

Previously, she worked in Kinshasa for the European Union mission for Security Sector Reform (EUSEC) in the Democratic Republic of Congo. From 2005 to 2009 she advised the Belgian Directorate General for Development on peace-building policies in the Great Lakes Region. Martinelli has advised UNIFEM, UNDP, the European Commission, and the European Parliament on gender, peace support operations, and security system reform in Burundi, the DRC, and the Central African Republic.

GEERT LAPORTE

Geert Laporte, a Belgian national, is Deputy Director at The European Centre for Development Policy Management (ECDPM), in Maastricht/Brussels. He has worked for ECDPM since 1990 in different roles and functions. Currently he is responsible for ECDPM's relations with the EU institutions, EU Presidencies, EU member states, and with the African Union in Addis Ababa, the ACP institutions in Brussels and with a large network of partners of the Centre in different parts of the world. He has been involved in extensive policy research, institutional audits, evaluations and publications on various aspects of EU-ACP and EU-Africa relations. He has also built a longstanding experience in policy dialogue facilitation and institutional and capacity development.

Prior to joining ECDPM he has worked in the 1980s for several years as a research fellow and later as an assistant at the Centre for Third World Studies at the University of Ghent in Belgium, where he mainly worked on the management of development aid in Latin America. Geert Laporte holds a Master in Contemporary History and a Master in Development Cooperation with specialisation in Public Administration from the University of Ghent.

More information of his work and publications

OBADIAH MAILAFIA

Dr. Mailafia, a Nigerian national, is Chef de Cabinet of the Secretary-General of the African, Caribbean and Pacific (ACP) Group of States, in Brussels. Widely regarded as one of the thought-leaders of the New Africa, Dr. Mailafia brings to the ACP the background of a seasoned economist, administrator and a respected international banker.

He graduated at with a B.Sc. Social Sciences Honours degree (Politics, Economics and Sociology) at Ahmadu Bello University in Nigeria and did post-graduate studies in International Economics at IIAP (École Nationale d'Administration--IIAP) in Paris, France. He completed his doctorate degree at the University of Oxford in the United Kingdom, where he was a Foreign and Commonwealth Office Scholar.

He worked for several years as a university academic, rising to the level of Associate Professor in London before joining the African Development Bank (ADB) Group; serving in Abidjan and in Tunis. He was a recipient of the Mamoun Beheiry Award for distinguished services to the ADB Group. He returned to his home country where he was appointed Deputy Governor of the Central Bank; he was later appointed Senior Policy Advisor to the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria with the rank of Minister of State. He was the Founder/Chairman of the Centre for Policy and Economic Research (CEPER), a macroeconomics and public policy think tank based in Abuja, Nigeria. He has several publications to his name in economics, finance and public policy.

CHRIS ALDEN

Dr. Chris Alden is Professor in International Relations at London School of Economics and Political Science, London, and Director of LSE-IDEAS Africa Programme. He is also Programme Head, Global Powers and Africa, at the South African Institute of International Affairs (SAIIA).

He is author/co-author of numerous books, including The South and World Politics (Palgrave 2010), China and Latin America (CLSA 2009), China in Africa (Zed 2007), and co-editor of China Returns to Africa (Hurst 2008), Japan and South Africa (Ashgate 2003) as well as articles in internationally recognised journals. He has contributed to research, conferences and publications on the changing role of China and Africa since 1992 and China and Latin America since 2007. He has conducted consultancies for the World Bank, the African Development Bank, Asian Development Bank, CLSA, JP Morgan, Goldman Sachs, Standard Bank (SA) and Rand Merchant Bank (SA) amongst others.

More information on his work and publications

ALEX VINES

Alex Vines is the Research Director at Chatham House (Royal Institute of International Affairs, London) since September 2008 and has run its Africa programme since 2002.

He was Chair of the UN Group of Experts on Côte d'Ivoire from 2005 to 2007 and was a member of the UN Group of Experts on Liberia from 2001 to 2003. For nine years he was a senior researcher at the Arms and Africa Divisions of Human Rights Watch working on Angola until 2002. He sits on several academic editorial boards including the South Africa Journal of International Affairs and was awarded an OBE in the 2008 Queens Birthday Honours for his work on Africa.

More information on his work and publications

OLADIRAN BELLO

Dr. Oladiran Bello, is head of the Governance of Africa's Resources Programme at the South Africa Institute of International Affairs (SAIIA), Johannesburg. His research interests include development, security, resources and governance in Africa and in EU-Africa relations.

He obtained both his MPhil and PhD degrees in International Relations from the University of Cambridge and also holds a First Class BSc degree from the Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife. Before joining SAIIA, he worked for several organisations including the United Nations (New York), FRIDE (Madrid), Management Systems International (Washington DC), Merchant International Group (London) and Arthur Andersen (later KPMG). Dr. Bello is a regular commentator in the print media and also appears on major news channels including Al Jazeera, TVE (Spain) and TV Intereconomia (Spain). He has lectured on Development Cooperation and EU-Africa Relations in B.Sc and Masters programmes at the Universidad CEU San Pablo (Madrid), ESSCA (France) and Diplomatic Academy (Vienna).

More information on his work and publications

VICTOR ÂNGELO

Victor Ângelo, a Portuguese national, is a Former Special Representative of the U.N. Secretary-General (Peacekeeping Operations, 2004-10), at the level of Under Secretary-General. He retired from the UN in April 2010, as SRSG for MINURCAT (CAR and Chad), after 32 years of work with different departments of the organisation. As part of his career, he represented the UN in many countries, as resident coordinator for development, as well as humanitarian coordinator and envoy for post-conflict situations. Prior to his UN work, he was a senior civil servant in the Portuguese government and a commissioner of National Electoral Commission which organised the Constitutional elections of 1975.

He is currently a senior international advisor on governance, crisis management and security. He is also a recognised columnist on world affairs of Visão, the largest Portuguese weekly magazine, a board member of the PeaceNexus Foundation (Switzerland) as well as a member of the North-South Centre's Think Tank in the Council of Europe and other research centres. He has written several academic papers and many weekly opinion columns.

SERGUEI OUATTARA

Serguei Ouattara is the President of the EU-Africa Chamber of Commerce, in Brussels. He started his professional career in 2003 as a freelance in Information Systems and Management Consulting and had the opportunity to contribute as High Level Conference Project Manager for the World Bank and the Government of Democratic Republic of Congo. He liaised with the local private sector, professional associations, financial institutions and development agencies such as GiZ, DFID and EU Delegation. He has also been contractor for the International Finance Corporation (IFC) to lead survey on SMEs business environment in DRC.

Mr. Ouattara had the opportunity to assist various European private sector companies (Europcar, AXA Belgium, BNP Paribas Fortis, Merial, Brasseries d'Orval, STIB) as Consultant in Information Systems. He also serves as Senior Business Analyst for the Trasys Group. Serguei Ouattara holds a Business Engineer Diploma obtained with Honors at Catholic University of Louvain (UCL), Belgium.

OLUSEGUN AKINSANYA

Ambassador Olusegun (Segun) Akinsanya joined the Institute for Security Studies in June 2010 as Office Director for the Addis Ababa office.

He holds a BSc degree in Political science from the University of Lagos, and post-graduate Diploma certificates in International Relations, Investment Promotion and Finance from Pakistan Administrative Staff College (PASCA), in Lahore, and from the National Institute for Policy and Strategic Studies, Kuru (NIPSS), Nigeria. He also holds a Diploma in French language from Universite de Dakar, Senegal.

A former Nigerian Ambassador to Ethiopia and Permanent Representative to the African Union and ECA (2004 to 2007), he was also concurrently accredited to Djibouti. During his tenure as Permanent Representative, he chaired the Permanent Representative's Committee to the African Union from July 2004 to January 2006 during Nigeria's chairmanship of the AU as well as presiding over meetings of the Peace and Security Council during monthly rotations each time Nigeria chaired the meetings of the continental body. He served as the UNDP Representative to the AU and ECA from November 2007 to December 2008 in the UNDP liaison office, Addis Ababa. He also served twice with the UNECA as a consultant - first with TFED/ATPC (2007-2008) and second with ISTID from March 2009 to June 2010.

JOSÉ BRIOSA E GALA

José Briosa e Gala, a Portuguese national, is the Special Advisor to the European Commission President on Africa and development within G8, and Member of the Management Board of the African Legal Support Facility, from June 2011. In July of 2003, he was appointed as personal representative of Portuguese Prime Minister José Manuel Durão Barroso, for the Africa Partnership Forum (APF).

From 1992 to 1995, Mr. Briosa e Gala was Secretary of State of Cooperation, being responsible for the Portuguese development cooperation policy and humanitarian assistance, at bilateral and multilateral levels. At the national level was also in charge of the Portuguese foreign policy regarding the African Continent, with intense involvement in the peace processes in Angola and Mozambique. Previously, in 1991, he has also been Deputy Secretary of State for the Minister of Education.

He has been appointed for several functions in the Portuguese company Portugal Telecom, including Executive Board Member of Portugal Telecom Multimedia and CEO of PT Conteúdos (2003-2006); Executive Director of Portugal Telecom Móveis and Executive Director of Portugal Telecom International. He is a lawyer and legal adviser, a Law School graduate (1977) and a Philosophy graduate (2013).

ABERTURA || OPENING

ANA PAULA LABORINHO

Presidente do Camões I.P. – Instituto da Cooperação e da Língua

MODERADORES || CHAIRS

CAROLINA QUINA

Carolina Feilman Quina is a senior consultant on Africa-EU Relations. Was recently, the Process Facilitator of the six Lunchtime Seminars on “The Future of the Africa-EU Partnership” organised by the European Commission/DG EuropeAid and the JAES Support Mechanism (Brussels, November 2013-March 2014).

Previously, from 1999 to 2012, she was Counselor for Africa and ACP affairs in the Portuguese Permanent Representation to the EU in Brussels, having actively participated in the preparation and negotiations of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Africa-EU Summits. In 2000 and 2007, during the Portuguese Presidencies of the EU, also chaired the Development WP (2000) and the ACP WP (2000 and 2007). From 1988 to 1999, worked as a consultant for European Commission and UNDP (Mozambique, Angola, Guiné-Bissau and Cabo Verde). From 1974 to 1988 she was Board Member of the first Portuguese development NGO: CIDAC-Centro de Informação e Documentação Amílcar Cabral.

CLARA CARVALHO

É Diretora do Centro de Estudos Internacionais (CEI-IUL) do ISCTE. Desde 2007 foi presidente da direcção do Centro de Estudos Africanos (CEA-ISCTE) e colaboradora do Centro em Rede de Investigação em Antropologia (CRIA-ISCTE), além de ser membro de diversas associações internacionais como a American Anthropological Association (EUA), a European Association of Social Anthropologists (EU) e o Instituto Nacional de Estudos e Pesquisas (INEP, Guiné-Bissau).

É professora auxiliar no Departamento de Antropologia do ISCTE (Lisboa) onde defendeu em 1999 uma tese de doutoramento sobre a revitalização dos regulados tradicionais na região de Cacheu, Guiné-Bissau. Foi professora convidada nas universidades de Lille, França (2002 e 2003) e Brown, E.U.A. (2004), bem como nos ateliers metodológicos do CODESRIA (2005, 2007 e 2008).

FERNANDO JORGE CARDOSO

É desde Outubro de 2012 coordenador da área de estudos estratégicos do Instituto Marquês de Valle Flor e docente convidado do Instituto Superior de Gestão. Foi Vice-Reitor da Universidade Moderna de Lisboa, de 2000 a 2007, e coordenador do programa África do Instituto de Estudos Estratégicos e Internacionais, de 1991 a 2012. Em Moçambique, licenciou-se em Economia em 1976, foi docente e diretor da Faculdade de Economia da Universidade Eduardo Mondlane e assessor do Ministro do Plano, de 1977 a 1983, e diretor-geral da empresa açucareira Maragra, de 1983 a 1985.

Na sua atividade académica doutorou-se em Economia no ISEG em 1991 e obteve a agregação na mesma escola em 2006. Colaborou com várias universidades tendo lecionado um total de 26 disciplinas e participado em 56 júris de doutoramento e mestrado. Coordenou dezenas de projetos de pesquisa e realizou consultorias de cooperação, tendo liderado a realização/avaliação de programas de ajuda ao desenvolvimento. Tem bibliografia publicada sobre temas africanos, do desenvolvimento e das relações internacionais.

ENCERRAMENTO DA CONFERÊNCIA || CLOSING SESSION

RUI MACHETE

Ministro de Estado e dos Negócios Estrangeiros

Minister for Foreign Affairs

Rui Machete nasceu em Setúbal em 1940. Licenciou-se em Direito pela Universidade de Lisboa e possui o curso complementar de Ciências Político-Económicas da Faculdade de Direito de Lisboa (1963), tendo obtido os prémios Calouste Gulbenkian em Ciências Histórico-Jurídicas e Político-Económicas, respetivamente em 1960 e 1962.

Advogado desde 1964, foi vogal do Conselho Superior da Ordem dos Advogados em 2005-2006. Foi também professor do Instituto de Estudos Sociais e do Instituto Superior de Ciências do Trabalho e da Empresa, onde regeu diversas cadeiras, tendo igualmente regido na Faculdade de Direito, como Assistente, as Cadeiras de Direito Constitucional, Direito Administrativo e Ciência Política. Foi igualmente professor convidado da Universidade Católica, onde tem regido duas disciplinas de Direito Público.

Foi Secretário de Estado da Emigração (1975), Ministro dos Assuntos Sociais (1976-1979), Ministro da Justiça (1983-1985), Vice-Primeiro-Ministro e Ministro da Defesa Nacional (1985). Foi secretário-geral adjunto do Partido Popular Democrata (1974-1975), vice-presidente do Partido e vogal da Comissão Política Nacional. Foi Deputado de 1985 até 1994.

Foi administrador do Banco de Portugal entre 1981 e 1989, vogal do Instituto Nacional de Administração de 1981 a 1983, presidente da Comissão Instaladora do Instituto de Gestão Financeira das Empresas Públicas (1983). Foi igualmente presidente da Comissão para a Elaboração do Novo Código Administrativo (1982-83).

Administrador da Fundação Luso-Americana para o Desenvolvimento desde 1985, foi presidente do seu Conselho Executivo de 1988 a 2010. Foi fundador da Fundação Oliveira Martins, desempenhando, desde o início, o cargo de Presidente do Conselho de Administração. Foi presidente da Associação Portuguesa do Direito do Ambiente desde a sua fundação.

Doutor honoris causa em Ciências Jurídicas pela Universidade Católica Portuguesa em 2007, foi também Honorary Doctoral Degree of Humane Letters atribuído pela Universidade de Massachusetts, Dartmouth, em 1997.