

WEBINAR

Reporting of Wrongdoing as a Key Leverage to Prevent and Fight Corruption and Crimes in the Sport Sector: the Role of Specialized Competencies.

26th-27th January 2021
h.12:30-14:00 CET

From
ASAG Catholic University | Milan
Unioncamere Europa | Brussels

In occasion of the last phase of the TPREG-Project <http://www.tpreg-training.eu> (<http://www.tpreg-digitalclassroom.eu>) cofunded by the European Commission, a Webinar is organized in two sessions.

The scope is both to disseminate the outcomes of the implemented activities and to foster a fertile debate among high-level actors in order to better outline future strategies and policies in view of a more strategic promotion of this approach and line of intervention.

The Final Dissemination Meeting will take place on 26th managed from Catholic University in Milan in coordination with CONI and will be focused on the technicalities and the role of national sport bodies.

A Multiplier Event will take place on 27th hosted by Unioncamere Europa in coordination with KU Leuven University and will be focused on a multistakeholder debate among high-level and primary actors aiming at outlining effective policies to promote a strategic use of education, training, procedures, mechanisms for reporting.
